Training in Common Good Thinking and Practice

Our exciting workshops help you refresh your mission and bring new energy to your work.

Why Here: Now: Us?

Here: because we are each rooted in a place - and we act through our local institutions, neighbourhoods, projects and communities.

Now: because we are at a critical point in the history of our country where the Church has a vital role to help heal divisions and strengthen civil society.

Us: because we, as Christians of different traditions are called to take action, as individuals with unique vocational responsibilities, and together as allies, across our differences.

WHO IS THIS FOR?

This training resource is designed for vicars, priests, pastors, chaplains, senior lay leaders, religious brothers and sisters and others in Christian leadership roles across different church traditions.

YOU WILL LEARN TO

- ✓ bring the Common Good alive in your church, community and neighbourhood
- ✓ strengthen and foster relationships for the Common Good in your area
- ✓ add value to your community, church and social action projects and initiatives
- ✓ review and refresh your mission and purpose; build Common Good Thinking into your role

TAILORED TO YOUR CONTEXT

This training can be tailored to your group's needs – delivered in one day, two days or over a longer period.

Includes unique materials, teaching, networking, prayer, discussion.

We also have one day workshops for church members. Please ask for details.
