

How can Christians build the Common Good in their communities?

What are you called to do?

“ The workshop was great - meeting with people who had a common aim: I left with a renewed sense of purpose. ”

“ ...made me more conscious of the impact of the fractures in society, and what we can do to heal the divides. ”

Refresh your mission in a Common Good training workshop

HERE : NOW: US PEOPLE

HERE : NOW : US PEOPLE

Training workshops for the Common Good

Our exciting workshops help you and your church discover new ways to work together to build the Common Good within your communities.

Why Here: Now: Us?

Here: because we are each rooted in a place - and we act through our local institutions, projects and communities.

Now: because we are at a critical point in the history of our country where the Church has a vital role to help heal divisions and strengthen civil society.

Us: because we, as Christians of different traditions are called to take action, as individuals with unique vocational responsibilities, and together as allies, across our differences.

WHO IS THIS FOR?

The one day workshop is designed for people from across the Christian traditions, but all are welcome to join in.

Includes unique materials, teaching, networking, prayer, discussion, activities and lunch.

YOU WILL LEARN TO

- ✓ bring the Common Good alive in your work, church and neighbourhood
- ✓ strengthen and foster relationships for the Common Good in your area
- ✓ add value to your community, church and social action projects
- ✓ review and refresh your mission and purpose; build Common Good Thinking into your life

HOST A WORKSHOP

Would you like to partner with us to host a workshop for people in your area? Could you gather 15-20 people from local churches and organisations?

To find out more, or to arrange a workshop in your area, please get in touch, details below.