Leaving Egypt
CONVERSATIONS

Leaving Egypt is a podcast exploring what it means to be God's people in this time of unravelling. Jenny Sinclair (UK) and Al Roxburgh (Canada) meet with guests to read the signs of the times and share stories about how the Holy Spirit is reweaving new life at the grassroots.

Alongside fortnightly episodes, Al and Jenny are holding informal online Conversations, where the Leaving Egypt community can meet each other online, with one or more guests from the podcast.

Our next forum features special guest David Cayley (David appeared in Episode #28)

Date: Wednesday 19 March at 6pm UK time. [11am Vancouver / 2pm Toronto / 1pm Minneapolis]

The focus of this conversation:

David Cayley was a friend and interlocutor of Ivan Illich. As a Catholic priest who lived deeply in the Christian tradition, Illich was signalling the need for Christians to awaken to the destructiveness of industrial consumer society and how it undermines our humanity. In doing so, he illuminated the fundamental importance of informal spaces and practices, where we attend to God and to each other, to uphold our common life. Join us to explore the significance of Illich's voice in this time of unravelling.
